Family

Cooper and Bria are starting the end of their Kindergarten year at our local public school. We prayed for and have been blessed with two amazing teachers (they are in different classrooms and are thriving). Cooper's favorite school activity is his clip chart and days that he gets on "Pink". Bria's favorite thing at school is stations. It is amazing to see them grow and learn and to experience the different parts of their personalities and talents, each hand crafted by God.

We call Cooper our "little missionary." We have been told by his teacher that he tells his classmates that God loves them and invites them to church. He is already planning to invite his friends to our local church Easter service and asked me to get more invitation cards so everyone in his class can get one.

Bria is our tender hearted little girl. She loves others and wants everyone to be her friend or have a friend...she also shoots it straight and will tell you if you are doing something that is wrong and has been know to tell people that, "Stupid is a mean word and you shouldn't say that."

Ministry Update

Saluti! Thank you to those churches and individuals that have become part of our financial and prayer support team! We truly appreciate each and every one of you and we pray that God continues to bless you as you bless others!

Chris officially left his job, of 20 plus years, with the Boys & Girls Clubs of Springfield and has poured himself into contacting local churches, friends, and those who are interested in our journey to Italy. Kim will continue working until the end of April and then she is excited to join in and help with contacting and making connections and relationships with churches and individuals.

We officially began itenerating in January of 2020. (Which means we entered into our support raising officially.) This has been and continues to be a journey of faith for our family. We are reminded daily that God has called us into ministry and He will continue to direct our steps and provide for our every need.

We are aware that many people are concerned about their health and the health of family and friends. We want to encourage you that God is in control and this did not surprise Him. We want to encourage you to put your faith and trust in Him and continue to spend time with him daily, tell Him your fears and concerns and let Him fill you with peace and wisdom. We pray this happens for each of you!
